2. ABOUT

Bridging Communities, Nation Building, and Policymaking

PolicyLink Nexus exists to create a space where people’s voices, experiences, and ideas can be heard and meaningfully connected to policymaking.

Better policies begin with creating opportunities for dialogue, listening to the people they are intended to serve, and ensuring that their perspectives are meaningfully relayed to policymakers.

3. COMMUNITY & POLICY

We listen to community perspectives on issues and examine the policies and decisions that affect them.

- Community Voices

We create opportunities for people and communities to share their perspectives, experiences, ideas, and concerns on issues that affect them.

Projects include:

- Community Stories
- Public Perspectives
- Emerging Issues

- Policy Watch

We examine government policies, programs, and strategies to understand how they respond to community needs and affect the people they serve.

Feedback and Evaluation:

Assumptions

Here are some assumptions and suggestion, please correct them in red text as goes:

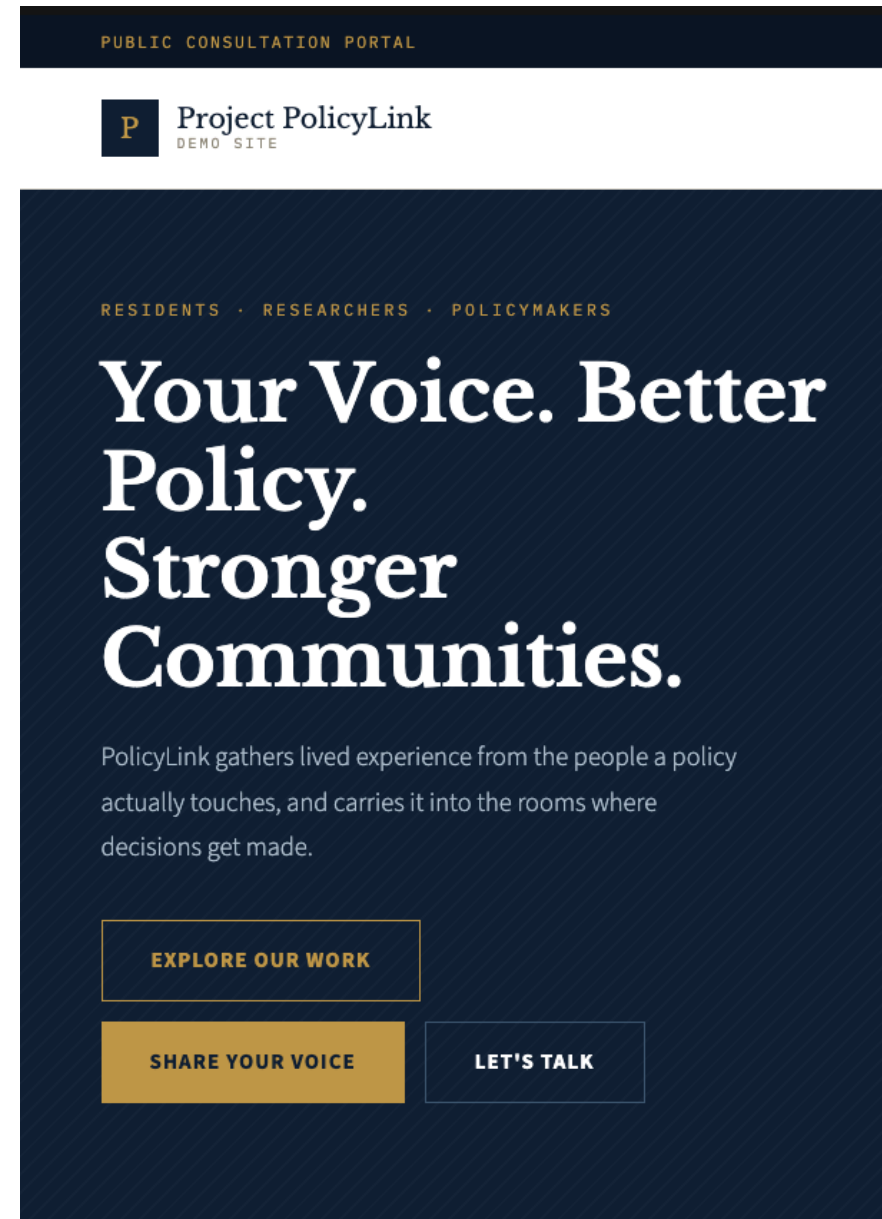

1. I am moving forward thinking that you would be changing/updating content over time as you refine the business
  - a. → Yes, it will be great if I can also get a link to see the site as it's being worked on - to also work on some parts
2. Community Voices: I assume this is an testimonial/past project page
  - a. → No, where people can share their thoughts on the projects being worked on
3. Get Involved - I assume is a bit of demonstration of the path using your services entail
  - a. → It's where there will be Google forms or surveys for people to fill, or in-person meetings for people to register to join
4. Community: would be a page where you can post policies of concerns and open the floor for registered users to comment on. Here is a blurb on the benefits of encouraging users to register: you capture emails, allowing for future or even direct campaigning for services; it's a great way to gauge user interaction and participation
  - a. → Exactly
5. "Share your voice" button is an example of a "call to action" that prompts the user to do something. In this case, I am thinking it is along the lines of contacting you; probably by email. But it can be anything of the such. I can help you with acquiring a more official domain and email like "info@policylinknexus.ca" or "cecily@policylinknexus.ca"
  - a. → Remember, 'Share your voice is only a tab under 'Community Voices'. The link they will click on to get to the survey or Google Form,
6. I think there should be a more direct funnel to capturing a sale/requisition of service.

- a. → On point
- 7. We can integrate a sales system right away like Stripe
  - a. → Yes
- 8. Newsletters may be a good funnel and free service you can offer as well
  - a. → Yes

Technology Suggestions:

- 1. Drupal CMS - website and content management. Also allows user interaction and registration
- 2. PostgreSQL - relational database
- 3. Google Cloud - cloud infrastructure
- 4. Stripe - Payment Portal
